DEACON JOHN WOLOSZYN

CONTRIBUTING WRITER

“Do not judge lest you be judged. For in the way you judge, you will be judged; and by your standard of measure, it will be measured to you. And why do you look at the speck that is in your brother’s eye but do not notice the log that is in your own eye? Or how can you say to your brother, ‘Let me take the speck out of your eye,’ and behold, the log is in your own eye?’ (Matthew 7:1-4)

It’s important to understand that each of us needs to focus on our own actions, not on the faults of others. This is a tough lesson for teens or adults.

Catholic Deacon John Woloszyn is chaplain at Hillbrook Detention Center and Iroquois Nursing Home. He is a member of the InterFaith Work’s Spiritual Care Program Advisory Board and serves on the 2012 Spiritual Care Day event committee.
