

Sign up to join a Dialogue Circle!

InterFaith Works' El-Hindi Center for Dialogue creates dialogue to help foster relationships, trust, and respect in the Syracuse Metropolitan Area.

How can we better understand other perspectives? Is there any commonality among our traditions? Can we create better lives for ourselves and our neighbors?

What is a Dialogue Circle?

Small groups of 8-12 people are guided by 2-3 facilitators for 5 or 6 2-hour sessions. Circle members get to know each other and discuss issues from many points of view. The facilitators create ground rules and keep the discussion going.

How do I Register?

If you are interested in participating in this program, please complete this form and return it to the address noted below. There is no fee for this program. Circles will be formed based on participant availability. You will be sent further information. If you would like additional information, please call Kofi Addai at 449-3552, x125.
