

Community Wide Dialogue To End Racism

Join a Dialogue Circle Today!

InterFaith Works' Community Wide Dialogue to End Racism is the longest running dialogue on race in America. Since its inception in 1996, over 10,000 people have been impacted by these dialogue circles. We are relaunching our new dialogue to action model called "Taking Action Against Racism!"

We are pleased to be able to once again offer the dialogue experience to the community at large.

What is a Dialogue Circle? Small groups of 8-12 people are guided by 2 facilitators for six 2-hour sessions. Circle members get to know each other and discuss issues from many points of view. The facilitators create ground rules and keep the discussion going.
